Are “you” Ready to Give an Account of “your” Stewardship to the Lord?

Probably one of the greatest tragedies in Christianity today is the masses of people who have blocked out of their mind or they do not believe in the Rapture and the 2nd Coming of Jesus. When you live your life like today could be the day that Jesus returns for His church in the Rapture, this is a motivation to holiness. It's a motivation to work while it's still day and it's a motivation to use the talents which God has endowed us with not only for personal advancement, but also for kingdom advancement. Paul said “be sober” many times to Timothy in regards to the fact the end of the world is coming. Now, if he said and meant that over 2000 years ago, then how much closer to the day of the Lord's Return for His church are we now in our day and age? Satan is pulling the blinders over the eyes of many especially, our youth, young adults, and professionals.

Many are so caught up with the cares of this world, their careers, and the temporary pleasures of this world they don't want to hear anything about the “end times.” Many think they have all the time in the world. Many youth and young adults will say, “When I'm old then I'll turn to God or if I get sick, then I will repent and turn to God.” They say, “I'm young, I just want to enjoy life a little while Mr. Preacher.”

Well, based on what Jesus told his disciples would be the signs that would mark His return, we see the signs of Jesus' return for His bride the church happening and intensifying right before our very eyes if we just pay attention to what God's Word says. In each Christian home, there must be a renewed vision of the soon return of Jesus Christ.

In each Christian home, there must be a renewed vision of the soon return of Jesus Christ.

is evident, we'll get out of neutral and for some people, they'll get out of “park.” We'll enthusiastically go share the Gospel with the unsaved and go make disciples. We'll utilize our God given talents for kingdom advancement. In Matthew chapters 24 and 25 Jesus discusses with His disciples the end of the age and His 2nd Coming. Jesus encourages His disciples to watch and be ready because when He returns, we should want to be found faithful of His calling and His gifting of us. Faithfulness is critical in the life of a Believer. Hebrews 11:6 says, it is “Impossible to please God without faith.” And when we're faithful in using what God has endowed us with, we will not be ashamed when the Master comes back. Are “you” Ready to Give an Account of “your” Stewardship to the Lord?

Book of the Month

Leviticus

The Book of Leviticus is the third book of the Torah and of the Old Testament. Most of its chapters (1-7, 11-27) consist of God's speeches to Moses, which God commands Moses to repeat to the Israelites. This takes place within the story of the Israelites' Exodus after they escaped Egypt and reached Mt. Sinai (Exodus 19:1). In Leviticus, God tells the Israelites and their priests how to make offerings in the Tabernacle and how to conduct themselves while camped around the holy tent sanctuary.

The instructions of Leviticus emphasize ritual, legal and moral practices rather than beliefs. Nevertheless, they reflect the world view of the creation story in Genesis 1 that God wishes to live with humans. The book teaches that faithful performance of the sanctuary rituals can make that possible, so long as the people avoid sin and impurity whenever possible. The rituals, especially the sin and guilt offerings, provide the means to gain forgiveness for sins (Leviticus 4-5) and purification from impurities (Leviticus 11-16) so that God can continue to live in the Tabernacle in the midst of the people.

Theme: Leviticus also illustrates that God was concerned that His people do what is right, and do it in the right way. Here are its five interlocking themes:

-- Holiness: Holy and holiness occur 95 times in Leviticus, more than any other book in the Bible. Leviticus reveals that a God who is set apart from all other "gods" must have a similar people.

-- Worship: Approaching a holy God is not a casual undertaking. Dealing with the sin that separates man from God requires sacrifice, which reflects death as the consequence of sin. The payment for sin, through the offering of sacrifices "without blemish" or "defect". The sacrificial system was a lesson concerning the importance and cost of maintaining fellowship with the holy God.

-- Law: Leviticus is filled with regulations and ordinances, all of which reveal our inability as humans to be perfect on our own. The Levitical laws would set the stage for laws that would one day be written on the hearts of God's people rather than on stone, replacing external obligation with internal motivation.

-- Presence: God's willingness to dwell in the midst of as sinful people -- camped in Israel in the Holy of Holies in the tabernacle -- would be a sign of His forgiveness and grace toward those He redeemed to Himself.

-- Atonement: Sins can be atoned for in the manner of God's choosing (chap. 16-17). In our English Bibles the word atonement is found 51 times in Leviticus, with the basic meaning "to cover", or "to make a covering". Old Testament atonement did not remove sins, but it covered sins until, ultimately, a final sacrifice would be made when the perfect Lamb of God offered Himself once and for all - Heb. 9:1-15, 24-28; 10:1-14.
